The Actor and the Target - Declan Donnellan - Google Books

Declan Donnellan 's book, The Actor and the Target, is a gift to actors. As a long time professional coach and teacher, I find that this book alleviates the actor's feelings of inadequacy by offering solutions to difficulties that can seem overwhelming. He presents practical, merciful, and logical ways to solve problems.

The Actor and the Target probably does require some background in basic acting. However, it is not meant to supplant Stanislavski nor the theorists who followed. In fact, Donnellan wrote the introduction to the newest Stanislavski translation, The Actor's Work, tr Jean Benedetti.

The Actor And Target New

Declan Donnellan has some great insight into common blocks actors have. His information is not new. His comments about the target is what Meisner refers to as your partner. What is great is how Donnellan words things and breaks down common ideas and rewords ideas to show what the actor should be focused on.
