The Angel Maker by Stefan Brijs — Review | At Home With Books
Dr. Frankenstein meets Dolly the Sheep in Stefan Brijs' neo-gothic horror story. Already a bestseller in Brijs' native Belgium, The Angel Maker makes its way to American shores cloaked in a narrative of eerie dread. As the novel opens, Dr. Victor Hoppe arrives at his old family home in the small village of Wolfheim.

The Angel Maker : Stefan Brijs : 9780143113096

The Angel Maker was a book with dark themes of death, manipulation, and superstition. The doctor, who is the main character of the book, is somewhat of a mystery in the first section of the book. He seems very cold, unemotional and somewhat sinister.
