The Archived (The Archived #1) Victoria Schwab. ONE. THERE IS NOTHING fresh about this start. I lean back against the car and stare up at the Coronado, the hotel-turned-apartment building that my mother and father find "so charming." It stares back, wide-eyed, gaunt. I spent the whole drive twisting the ring on my finger, running my thumb ...

Three vertical lines, the mark of the Archive, separate the words, and a set of Roman numerals runs beneath. Across the room a woman sits behind a large desk, writing briskly in a ledger, a QUIET PLEASE sign propped at the edge of her table.
