I first became a plus-size model on the Razor Girls fetish site as a means to an end. It was how I escaped my abusive past and got off the streets. Now, it 's become my career, complete with lifestyle blog posts that I have to get pretty creative with seeing as how I 'm making it up as I go along. Little did I know my faking-it-till-I-made-it would land me an audition as the new spokesmodel of a posh clothing line for female submissives. And apparently, it 's all thanks to mysterious billionaire Jake Morgan—a man too intense for words who seems to know an awful lot about me. I 'm fairly certain he 's on to me. In fact, I think he 's known from the start that I 've never met an actual Dom. Until now. Note: Jake & Alexa were previously part of the Training Her Curves serial series, but over the years, I 've found myself reimagining the way their love story could have unfolded. This retelling of their romance is significantly different from the storyline of the Kehoe siblings in Training Her Curves. In fact, I made so many extensive changes it 's basically a whole new story. I hope you enjoy it!
