Teddy Roosevelt's bully pulpit - History - WORLD

In fact, while the term bully pulpit is used today to describe any position that gives the occupant the ability to proclaim his views, it was invented by none other than President Theodore Roosevelt, who in speaking of the presidency once declared, "I suppose my critics will call that preaching, but I have got such a bully pulpit!"

Bully pulpit comes from the 26th U.S. President, Theodore Roosevelt, who observed that the White House was a bully pulpit. For Roosevelt, bully was an adjective meaning "excellent" or "first-rate"—not the noun bully ("a blustering, browbeating person") that's so common today. Roosevelt understood the modern presidency's power of persuasion and recognized that it gave the incumbent the opportunity to exhort, instruct, or inspire.
