'The Butt'. Standing on one of the balconies of the Mimosa serviced apartments, Tom Brodzinski sucked on the moist filter-tip of his cigarette, and swore to himself it would be his last. But then, it occurred to him, that's something I've sworn a whole heap of times before. This time, though, it would be different.

The main exit strategy for startups is to sell the company to a bigger one for a profit. The same goes for investors. The buyer takes over the startup using cash or stock as a compensation, and key executives and employees from the startup often stay at the company for a period of time in order to be able to cash out and vest their stock.
