The Chinatown Death Cloud Peril is a pulp story of daring heroics, improbable escapes, dark figures, secret plots, and grand adventure, with pulp writers as the heroes. Malmont populates the book with the popular fiction writers of the 1930s, writers whose work was printed on cheap newsprint, who wrote hundreds of books in the same series with the same heroes and basic formulae, and who had to deliver stories at a rate that left no time for editing, let alone slow crafting, if they intended ...
