John C Waugh

In an exceedingly well-written narrative, Waugh tackles this subject head-on, following school friends of the 1846 West Point graduating class from their four rigorous years at the Academy through the questionable heroics of the Mexican War and the early Indian wars on the Great Plains to the grim carnage of America's Iliad.

?The Class of 1846 on Apple Books

My "book under the bed" these weeks has been "The Class of 1846" by John Waugh. It is already very satisfying that I bought it second-hand on Amazon, not really knowing how it was, and got a hefty volume with lots of pictures and a really well-done bibliography and index. A good bargain...
