Classical art & architecture, drama & epic, philosophy & politics--these are the foundations of Western civilization. In The Classical World, eminent classicist Robin Lane Fox chronicles this vast sweep of history from Homer to the reign of Hadrian. The classical civilizations of Greece & Rome once dominated the world. The Classical World An Epic Robin Lane Fox has authored a sweeping history of what he calls "The Classical World," from Homer's Greece to Hadrian's Roman Empire. While a work of such scope means that there cannot be great depth in discussing any point in that era; on the other hand, it provides a bird's eye view of issues, themes, and change over time.

The Classical World: An Epic History from Homer to Hadrian

...
As for the social world of his poems, it is based on an age closer to his own time (c.
800-750 BC): the 'world' of his epics is quite different from anything which the archaeology and scribal writing of the remote 'Mycenaean' palaces suggest. Nowadays, scholars' dates for Homer himself vary between c. 800 BC and c. 670 BC.
