The Closer: My Story by Mariano Rivera

"The Closer: My story," written by Mariano Rivera with Wayne Coffey is an autobiography of Mariano's humbled life starting as a poor, Panamanian fisherman and ending up in the World Series pitching for the New York Yankees, the greatest sports franchise in history, multiple times with the game and season resting squarely on his shoulders.

Closer

The Bible can't tell you the story of my walk with the Lord, but it can tell you everything about how I try to live, and why the love of the Lord is the foundation of my whole life. For me, the Bible is not just the word of God, but a life road map that is packed with wisdom that you cannot beat even if you spent the next hundred years

It gave the story an added jolt of legitimacy to my young mind. Now 45 years later, that feeling remains. Normally sensational stories like this appeared only in the National Enquirer or FATE or UFO magazines, but the Pascagoula incident was a case that somehow transcended standard divisions of journalism.
