Complete Poems of Carl Sandburg Houghton Mifflin Harcourt

A collection from the Pulitzer Prize – winning American poet with "a sharp lively wit and a tender approach to the human condition" (The Philadelphia Inquirer). Though he was also renowned as a biographer of Abraham Lincoln, Carl Sandburg was first and foremost a poet—upon his death, President Lyndon B. Johnson said "Carl Sandburg was more than the voice of America, more than the poet of its strength and genius. He was America. ” In this outstanding collection of seventy-seven poems, Sandburg eloquently celebrates the themes that engaged him as a poet for more than half a century of writing—life, love, and death. Strongly lyrical, these intensely honest poems testify to human courage, frailty, and tenderness and to the enduring wonders of nature. “ A poetic genius whose creative power has in no way lessened with the passing years. ” —Chicago Tribune
