Rainbows Are Made Houghton Mifflin

A collection from the Pulitzer Prize – winning American poet with “ a sharp lively wit and a tender approach to the human condition ” (The Philadelphia Inquirer). Though he was also renowned as a biographer of Abraham Lincoln, Carl Sandburg was first and foremost a poet—upon his death, President Lyndon B. Johnson said “ Carl Sandburg was more than the voice of America, more than the poet of its strength and genius. He was America. ” In this outstanding collection of seventy-seven poems, Sandburg eloquently celebrates the themes that engaged him as a poet for more than half a century of writing—life, love, and death. Strongly lyrical, these intensely honest poems testify to human courage, frailty, and tenderness and to the enduring wonders of nature. “ A poetic genius whose creative power has in no way lessened with the passing years. ” —Chicago Tribune

A Study Guide for Carl Sandburg's "Cool Tombs" Knopf Books for Young Readers

"These letters reveal the thoughts of two fine, strong minds drawn to each other first by their interest in socialism, then by their love of poetry and a similarity of ethics and ideals. My mother recognized this in his early prose and poetry. They learned so much about each other from these letters, yet it seems extraordinary that there was so little personal contact."-- From the introduction by Margaret Sandburg

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt

The great American poet ' s essential collection spanning fifty years of verse—with an introduction by Mark Van Doren. With major contributions in the realms of journalism, biography and children ' s fiction, Carl Sandburg was a luminary of twentieth-century American literature. But he was first a foremost a poet who transformed the diversity of his experience into powerfully vivid and beloved verse. His many collections won numerous accolades, including two Pulitzer Prizes. This selection of Sandburg ' s poems is culled from half a century of output and includes thirteen poems appearing in book form for the first time. As this collection so masterfully demonstrates, “ [Sandburg ' s poetry] is independent, honest, direct, lyric, and it endures, clamorous and muted, magical as life itself ” (New York Times).
