The Devil Who Tamed Her | Book by Johanna Lindsey ...

Her father's man hadn't wanted to bring her back to Yorkshire in the first place, and once they'd arrived here after much persuasion on her part, he had insisted he'd lose his job if he didn't return to London posthaste to let her parents know where she had run off to.

The Devil Who Tamed Her by Johanna Lindsey is a fun book. Ophelia is beautiful but arrogant, but hero Rafe is devil enough to teach her a few lessons.

Johanna Lindsey has delivered a well written story with wonderful characters, drama and spice. I look forward to reading more from Johanna Lindsey in the future.

(6) Raphael
heard the low
growl that Ophelia emitted
with that news.
He smirked,
"Which of you
would have driven the coach
if my man had been obliged to ignore my orders?".
Ophelia swung
back around and glared at him.

The Devil Who
Tamed Her I have over 300
audio books
from Audible,
and this is the 1st time I've

written a Review.
However, I
enjoyed this book so immensely that I feel compelled to write this review
so that others
can also experience that enjoyment. I'm a Johanna Lindsey
fan; others who also appreciate
her books will find this a treasure!

Tamed Her" is the story of Ophelia
and Raphael. The protagonists of this book have been introduced in the last- Lady Ophelia is the gorgeous, ethereal beauty with a vile tongue and even more wretched behavior. We saw her tantrums and snide, thoughtless remarks in the previous book- and for me she was a villain beyond redemption..
