Karina Halle

In the end, The Devil's Metal in itself is a soul-sucking book that is simply unputdownable. Everything Karina Halle writes leaves us at the most annoying cliffhanger and all together, books that sparks up an addiction that I don't think is healthy.

Summary: The Devil's Metal by Karina Halle

Did The Devil's Metal inspire you to do anything? No. Any additional comments? This would have been a really great read if the author had spent more time on the curse and allowed the demons to really get backstage access at the characters. Instead it was like she dipped her toe in the water and fell asleep. The narrator was great.
