Most English translations of INFERNO are full of colorful, but meaningless language based on today's modern standards. Some translations are so elaborate that they are as difficult to read as the original Italian version. This translation uses the Longfellow translation as a base, but replaces the obscure or antiquated verbiage with the language of Modern English. This translation could easily be read and understood by today's reader. Adding the illustrations by Gustave Dore brings this classic work to life.

The Dor é Illustrations for Dante's Divine Comedy Flame Tree Illustrated

More than 400 restored and enhanced illustrations from the mind of Gustave Dor é celebrate the legacy of one of history's greatest artists. Known for his highly detailed wood engravings and gifted sense of composition, Gustave Dor é was one of the premier illustrators from the 19th century whose visual style was years ahead of his time. For the first time, a beautifully curated collection of some of his best work from eight influential books is available in one volume. Best of Gustave Dor é includes images from: - Dante's Inferno - Milton's Paradise Lost - The History of Don Quixote - Dor é 's London: A Pilgrimage - Les Contes Drolatiques - Dante's Purgatory and Paradise - Dor é 's Bible Gallery - Adventures Du Baron De M ü nchhausen Page after page of Dor é illustrations shows why this prolific French prodigy may be history's most versatile artist with an unequalled range and unrestrained ability to convey hope, tragedy, passion, and agony, all with a delightfully macabre sense of humor.

Best of Gustave Dore Volume 1 contains some of his biggest, mind-bending pieces in addition to enlarged, re-scanned images of smaller cartoons and sketches from the background details of books like Dor é 's London and Les Contes Dolatiques. New and old fans alike will find themselves immersed for days soaking in every detail and subtle nuance from his myriad array of masterpieces. - 8 1/2" x 11" printing - Crisp digitally re-scanned and enhanced images - More than 400 illustrations - Display quality cover design - Introduction by Mark Bussler, creator of Dante's Inferno: The Coloring Book and Magnum Skywolf "Born in France in 1832, Dor é was considered an artistic genius at an early age who embarked on a lifetime career as a cartoonist, illustrator, painter, sculptor, and caricaturist. Wood engravings became his specialty, and he is widely known today for his illustrations in popular books such as Dante's Inferno, Milton's Paradise Lost, and Dor é 's London: A Pilgrimage. What makes Dor é 's artwork unique is his range of talent beyond his skill as a technical illustrator. His mastery of human anatomy and background details is rivaled only by his own abilities to shift subject matters, effortlessly, from angst and pain to comic hilarity. His chilling artwork for Dante's Inferno evokes endless, eternal suffering while his quirky, lighthearted drawings for Les Contes Drolatiques show his good sense of humor and gifted cartooning skills." About the Writer: Mark Bussler is the founder of CGR Publishing, lead-restoration artist, and cover designer. He has written and illustrated more than 100 books, including Dante's Inferno: The Coloring Book, The Ultra Massive Video Game guidebook series, Magnum Skywolf, Ethel the Cyborg Ninja, Robot Kitten Factory, 1939 New York World's Fair: The World of Tomorrow in Photographs and the science fiction space manga, Omega Ronin (2021.) Bussler directed the films Expo: Magic of the White City narrated by Gene Wilder, Westinghouse, and the long-running Classic Game Room Internet show. The Vision of Purgatory and Paradise Courier Corporation

A young adventurer embarks on a surreal quest to escape the clutches of Death in this tale inspired by—and featuring—beautiful woodcuts by Gustave Doré. In a world between legend and dream, A Wild Ride Through the Night describes the exhilarating and comic adventures of its twelve-year-old protagonist Gustave, a boy who aspires one day to be a great artist. When a disaster at sea puts Gustave in the uncompromising hands of Death, he has the choice to give up the ghost or take on a series of six impossible tasks. Gustave embarks on a strange and perilous journey during which he must save a princess from an angry dragon, pull a tooth from the Most Monstrous of All Monsters, fly over the moon, and even, somehow, meet his own self. Armed only with the power of his imagination, Gustave must save himself from a terrible fate.

Dante's Inferno (Illustrated by Dore) Courier Corporation

This beautiful hardcover edition – containing all three cantos, Inferno, Purgatorio, and Paradiso – includes an introduction by Nobel Prize-winning poet Eugenio Montale, a chronology, notes, and a bibliography. Also included are forty-two drawings selected from Botticelli's marvelous late-fifteenth-century series of illustrations. The Divine Comedy begins in a shadowed forest on Good Friday in the year 1300. It proceeds on a journey that, in its intense recreation of the depths and the heights of human experience, has become the key with which Western civilization has sought to unlock the mystery of its own identity. Allen Mandelbaum's astonishingly Dantean translation, which captures so much of the life of the original, renders whole for us the masterpiece of that genius whom our greatest poets have recognized as a central model for all poets. Everyman's Library pursues the highest production standards, printing on acid-free cream-colored paper, with full-cloth cases with two-color foil stamping, decorative endpapers, silk ribbon markers, European-style half-round spines, and a full-color illustrated jacket. Everyman's Library Classics include an introduction, a select bibliography, and a chronology of the author's life and times.
