The Dyer's Hand is
the rare kind of
book that gets better and better
with the reading of
other books,
especially by
authors discussed
in detail by Mr

Auden. Last and
least, the reader
should be warned
that the book is full
of quotations, and
quite a few of them
are in foreign languages. Mr Auden was apparently something of a
polyglot.
