He considered his time as part of the "last hour" or end times. Though the end times are hotly debated today, it is clear the apostles believed they lived in some sense of "the end times," starting after the ascension of Jesus. John's reason for referring to the current time as "the last hour" was the emergence of so many of these antichrists.

The End is Now (Apocalypse Triptych Book 2), edited by John Joseph Adams. There are so many ways the world can end. There are, of course, zombies – I'm really quite tired of zombies, by the way – but it's the varied tales in this collection that really gave me pause. There is absolutely something here for everyone.
