The Everlasting Man Quotes. "Christendom has had a series of revolutions and in each one of them Christianity has died. Christianity has died many times and risen again; for it had a God who knew the way out of the grave." ? G.K. Chesterton , The Everlasting Man.

Lecture 44: The Everlasting Man - American Chesterton Society

The Everlasting Man is not your typical Christian apologetics classic. I say this because G.K. Chesterton is not aiming to write a pure 'defence of the faith' as it were, but to write a work that better explores the relationship of Christianity to history.

"There is pain in the world, therefore, God does not exist" makes as much sense as saying, "I feel hungry, therefore, food does not exist..." Jesus didn't come into the world to take away our pain ...

The Everlasting Man

Displaying all of his brilliant synthesis and devastating irony, The Everlasting Man is perhaps Chesterton's best book. C.S. Lewis who cited The Everlasting Man as one of the principle books in his conversion said, "I read Chesterton's Everlasting Man and for the first time saw the whole Christian outline of history set out in a form that seemed to me to make sense."

Lecture 44: The Everlasting Man. "Art is the signature of man," says Chesterton. It is just one of many things that demonstrates that "the more we look at man as an animal, the less he will look like one." In addition to art are such artificial things as clothes and furniture and such unique reactions such as shame and laughter.
