Information on the Future Homemakers of America at the national, state, and local level was studied and compiled, such as publications, scrapbooks, personal material, and other records. It was found that the Utah organization of the Future Homemakers of America has followed the nationally outlined program for projects, activities, and meetings. The projects worked on within the state seem to have supported the eight stated purposes of the Future Homemakers. It was shown that Future Homemakers representing Utah have attended all of the national meetings for the past twenty-five years. Utah has contributed only five national officers. Student officers have planned and conducted the meetings and conventions of the Future Homemakers of America in Utah.
