The Gods Of Newport John In The Gods of Newport, robber barons such as Sam Driver, were seen as 'dirty money' and were not welcome into the 'clean' society of the elite. In The Gods of Newport, John Jakes takes you into the homes of people who occupied the cottages of the Marble House, the Breakers, and the Ocean House all of which exist today in Newport. If you've ever visited these

"cottages" in Newport, Rhode Island, then you can easily envision the lavish balls, high teas, and social gatherings that were the ...

The Gods of Newport - Kindle edition by Jakes, John ...

A novel written by John Jakes always holds my attention. THE GODS OF NEWPORT is no different. Mr. Jakes is an excellent writer and in this novel he writes of the turn of the century from the 1800's to the 1900's. Newport was the "mecca center" for the rich and ultra rich.
