The Greene Murder Case is my favorite S.S. Van Dine book, and not just because it was the first of his series that I read. Reading this book is like viewing a fabulous black and white movie from the 1930's. It has everything--a dark, brooding mansion, a cast of dark, brooding suspects, mood-setting snowstorms, murder, many, many dark and stormy nights, a dark library filled with dusty tomes lit only by a guttering candle!
