Brad Watson's The Heaven of Mercury brings fresh, sly humor to the traditionally dark genre of Southern gothic. It's the story of the small town of Mercury, Mississippi, told through the lives of various inhabitants, including a white man, Finus, and his lifelong love, Birdie; and a black girl, Creasie, and her Aunt Vish--slave descendants who see Mercury as the zone of their captivity.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Heaven of Mercury: A Novel

Brad Watson's The Heaven of Mercury is simply a gorgeous undertaking beautifully executed. The story can't be shoe-horned into a style type though his writing is certainly southern, with atmospherics on a par with any of the other great southern writers.
