For Katherine Donovan the slums of Dublin are a lonely place. Her father, a pawnbroker, is the most hated man in the district, and Katherine an outcast. Her only friend is tiny Ceppi Healy, underfed, irrepressible and, the youngest in a neglected family of eight, as much an emotional orphan as eighteen-year-old Katherine.

The House on Lonely Street is the author's first full-length book. He has written many poems over the course of his life, but nothing like this. A friend jokingly encouraged the author to turn his poetry into a book. After creating a beginning and an end, he decided that he could do it, and filled in the middle.
