John's vision was human history in 200 pages, and he teamed up with his father to write it. The finished product was 350 pages, and titled The Human Web. The book slices human history into time blocks, and provides snapshots of the world during each period. It's not a sleep-inducing recital of kings, empires, wars, and dates.

The Human Web: A Bird's-Eye View of World History ...
 The Human Web is an excellent summary of human history. It is indeed a bird's eye
 view in that it looks at the broad overall
 sweep of human affairs and doesn't
 bog down in
 unnecessary detail.
 The major theme is
 the construction and

expansion of human
 webs, or
 interconnections that
 tie cultures and
 civilizations
 together ever more
 tightly.
