Sean Russell's The Initiate Brother is a stunning work of fantasy, where we travel to a world rich in detail and full of both action and political intrigue. In this duology, we travel to the Empire of Wa, which is slowly but surely beginning to crumble. The old dynasty has been toppled and the new Emperor, Akanstu,...

If you enjoy character-centered epic fantasy with lots of political intrigue, Sean Russell's The Initiate Brother is a great choice. I listened to Blackstone Audio's version and can recommend this format. This was my first experience with Sean Russell's writing, but I'll definitely be exploring more of his work in the future.

Initiate Brother Shuyun is one of the great characters to ever live. Yes I said "live" because Sean Russell makes Shuyun and the other characters live. The Empire of Wa is so real that you cannot help but inhabit that world long after you read the book. The poetry is exquisite, the language is beautiful, and the religious tension is perfect.

Initiate Brother: The Initiate Brother Series, 1 Audiobook by Sean Russell

The Initiate Brother is the first of two books in Sean Russell's faux-occidental (heavy Chinese influence) duology regarding the fall of an era. I don't have the historical background to see if he is drawing inspiration from a specific incident in time; however, it doesn't really matter to me - I love the story for itself.

Initiate Brother Series by Sean Russell - Goodreads
Gatherer of Clouds is the sequel to Sean Russell's The Initiate Brother, a story which is not so much about the Initiate Brother Shuyun, spiritual advisor to Lord Shonto, as it is about the entire Shonto household — a household that is seen as a threat by an insecure emperor. ORIGINALLY POSTED AT Fantasy Literature.
