The phoenix of the title refers how Salafism has responded to the various conflicts of the last 15 years and re-imagined itself presently as a tech savvy Islamic State, eager to conduct the business of state while maintaining a diet of terror for its opponents.

The Islamist phoenix : the Islamic State and the redrawing ...
The Islamist Phoenix: Islamic State and the Redrawing of the Middle East illuminates the singularity and modernity of IS and describes its strength and its appeal in an increasingly destabilized Middle East. It is a mistake to compare IS to other jihadist groups such as the Taliban or al Qaeda, which aren't interested in contemporary nation-building, says Napoleoni.
