My first pick was The Jesus Incident, which after reading it I found out is actually the sequel to Destination Void - D'oh! Nevermind though, you don't need to read Destination Void in order to understand or enjoy The Jesus Incident. This book has a large cast of characters, but they had distinctive enough voices that they didn't all blur together.

The Jesus Incident is, in its own way, a religious experience. The novel grapples with what an omniscient, omnipotent god would actually be like, and how such a being could interact with mankind.

As much as I love the Dune books, Herbert wrote many, many more that are just as fascinating. Destination:Void and the 3 novels that followed, written with Bill Ransom are my personal favourites, though. Yes, Lazarus Effect is great, but The Jesus Incident is the 1 I really love, and is definitely worth reading.

Destination: Void is the first of four books set in the eponymous universe of Herbert's making, also sometimes known as the Pandora series. The action in this book centers around an "umbilicus" crew of four and their ship, Earthling , that is carrying a massive cargo of hibernating colonists meant to colonize a planet in the distant Tau Ceti system.
