The King's Two Bodies. Kristen Todd. When one hears the cry, "The king is dead! God save the king!" one might believe that the "king" referred to is the mortal man. One might believe that the "king" in the first sentence is the old king, and the second king is the new. But in fact this cry is not simply a collective prayer for a deceased king or a heralding of the new; rather, it is a reference to a political theory dating back to the medieval and early modern periods.

The King's Two Bodies - Wikipedia

The King's Two Bodies is a 1957 historical book by Ernst Kantorowicz. It concerns medieval political theology and the distinctions separating the "body natural" and the "body politic". The book has had significant influence on the field of medieval studies, even as its methods and style of argumentation are viewed with wariness by contemporary scholars. It is the recipient of the Haskin's medal from the Medieval

Academy of America. Stephen Greenblatt has said that the book is a "remarkably vital
