What other book might you compare The Last Kashmiri Rose to, and why? Miss Cleverly writes a great story, I do not know who I would compare this book to, just let it stand on its own merits. Have you listened to any of Terry Wale's other performances? How does this one compare? Enjoyed Mr Wale's narration, his voice is pleasant and diction good.

Barbara Cleverly was born in the north of England and is a graduate of Durham University. A former teacher, she has spent her working life in Cambridgeshire and Suffolk; she now lives in Cambridge. She has one son and five step-children.
