Pierre Bourdieu's
Logic of Practice
proposes a model
through which to understand society
in the most general
terms. The basic idea is that human beings are
predisposed to act
in their social environment in
certain ways
relative to a pre-
determined
understanding of the ways in which
they think they ought to behave and
relative to the
perceived value
certain other people
have or possess in a given society.

Theory of power and practice. Pierre Bourdieu developed a theory of the action, around the concept of habitus, which exerted a considerable influence in the social sciences. This theory seeks to show that social agents develop strategies which are adapted to the needs of the social worlds that they inhabit.
