The Overland Trail (also known as the Overland Stage Line) was a stagecoach and wagon trail in the American West during the 19th century. While portions of the route had been used by explorers and trappers since the 1820s, the Overland Trail was most heavily used in the 1860s as an alternative route to the Oregon, California, and Mormon trails through central Wyoming.

The Longest Road was an enjoyable book. I liked everything in it, I just wanted there to be more of it. And when I see that there were 320 pages I realize that no matter how much more there was to it, it wouldn't have been enough! I just like road books.. I enjoy meeting the characters one meets along the road. There can never be too many of them.
