After reading The Lost Art of Compassion, I was tremendously impressed with Dr.

Ladner's knowledge and pragmatism.

Following our meeting and periodic exchanged emails, I can attest that Dr. Ladner does indeed embody the ideals of compassion and happiness he so successfully writes about. Again, an excellent book.

There is no substitute for practicing compassion and love in order to be a true healer which is the message of Dr.

Lown. Every student is required to read this book before their clinical rotation in my office. We can regain this lost art and return love to the bedside.
