The Paris Express (1952) - IMDb

Based on the 1938 novel by Georges Simenon--the author who created fictional sleuth Jules Maigret, and whose books like The Man on the Eiffel Tower and The Brothers Rico were also adapted for the big screen--The Man Who Watched Trains Go By casts beloved Warner Bros. character actor Claude Rains (Mr. Skeffington) as the meek Poppinga.

The Man Who Watched Trains Go By is one of the lesser known Claude Rains film vehicles, and it ' s certainly worth watching even if it doesn ' t compare to the best of his 1940s ' output. The Classic Flix Blu-ray release offers beautiful Technicolor imagery and decent sound of its era to accompany its melancholy narrative.
