An Inconvenient Plan: A Frenemies to Lovers Romantic Comedy (Happy Endings Book Club, Book 10) Extra Fancy Books

A friends-to-lovers romance, where one of them is a virgin and the other can't stop thinking about it. Adam True or false? Men and women can't be friends. I used to say true, until I met Kayla. Yes, she's a goddess, but it's completely platonic. So when she asks me to pose as her fiancé at a party, I'm all in. Especially since her sleazeball ex will be there. Can you believe this weasel dumped her at the altar? I've got your back, Kayla. What are friends for? But now I'm worried I played the part too well because we're heading home, and she makes a confession: she's tired of saving herself for marriage and wants me to be her first. Her first! I can't go there. The woman has committed relationship written all over her, something I'm never doing again for good reason. Except when I tell her no, she starts considering other candidates. I can't let her be with some random guy! I can't cross the line either. She doesn't know what she's asking! She doesn't know what she's doing! Someone has to stop her. Kayla Only Adam will do. This romantic comedy stands alone with a swoonworthy happy-ever-after! No cliffhangers. "When hot redheaded Lily walks into Nico Marino's classic car restoration shop, he figures she's the frisky blind date his brother arranged. The sizzling seduction comes to a screeching halt when he learns she's the daughter of his wealthiest client. This is one hookup he has to say no to, only Lily has other ideas. Lily Spencer knows men only want her for her money or her family, but she has a plan to end her two-year dry spell with the sexy Nico—getting his hands on a 1969 Mustang she's inherited. And hopefully on her too. All it takes is a two-week, no-strings road trip. Lily won't take no for an answer."--Page 4 of cover.

Escape into this hilarious feel-good romance with a fake husband who wants to be the real deal! USA Today bestselling series.

Reality is overrated... Exhausted single mom Daisy Garner is shocked when her blog about life with Darling Husband and Baby Delight in their charming Victorian home brings a national talk show to her door. Amazing! Except she made the whole thing up.

Panic! Now she needs to borrow a Victorian house and find a man to play her fake husband on TV. Travis O'Hare steps up for the role, as long as she'll marry him for real. He wants their son to have the stable home life Travis never had. But before the wedding can happen, Travis and Daisy have to get through the interview with a ratings hungry host and a slick producer with ties to Daisy's troubled past. When a winter storm traps them all, it begs the question: can two people pretending at love finally discover the real thing? This feel-good romance stands alone with a swoonworthy happy-ever-after! SHORTLISTED FOR THE WAINWRIGHT PRIZE 'This story - so fierce and brave and visceral and raw - will stay with me forever. Clover Stroud is a force of nature, and a woman who is fearless in the face of life and death. I loved it.' Elizabeth Gilbert, author of Eat Pray Love 'An astonishing book about loss, love, darkness, pain, sex and adventure. I adore it.' Dolly Alderton 'There is so much richly evoked life here... beautifully written.' Cathy Rentzenbrink, The Times 'This redemptive memoir will steal your heart; it will return it bruised but emboldened.' Mail on Sunday 'I have huge admiration for the spirit of this memoir, and its author: full of heart, bravery and adventure. A moving, gripping read.' Amy Liptrot, author of The Outrun Clover Stroud grew up in rural Wiltshire surrounded by animals and family. When she was just sixteen her adored mother had a horrific riding accident which left her permanently brain-damaged, and suddenly Clover was left to fend for herself. She embarked on an extraordinary journey to heal her broken heart, courting men and danger through two marriages and five children. The Wild Other is a grippingly honest account of love, sex and travelling to the darkest edges of human experience and back again. Powerful and deeply emotional, this is the story of an extraordinary life lived at its fullest.
