The Oxford History of Greece and the Hellenistic World gives a bird's eye view of the period. For the reader who is unfamiliar with Greek and Hellenistic history and its art and literature, this is a good introduction.

The Oxford History is very good. The lead author, John Boardman, is considered by many to be the greatest living art historian of the Greek world. I see that others would like to suggest primary sources. If you are not familiar with the era, then I highly suggest a strong secondary source such as this or the one suggested by /u/Tjdamage
