Review

During the Nazi occupation of Paris, an architect devises ingenious hiding places for Jews. In architect Belfoure 's fiction debut, the architectural and historical details are closely rendered, while the characters are mostly sketchy stereotypes. Charles Belfoure (Author of The Paris Architect) In 1942 Paris, gifted architect Lucien Bernard accepts a commission that will bring him a great deal of money - and maybe get him killed. But if he's clever enough, he'll avoid any trouble. All he has to do is design a secret hiding place for a wealthy Jewish man, a space so invisible that even the most determined German
