I'm so pleased to have discovered Virginia Kantra

and the Passion of Patrick MacNeill. It's well written, thoroughly researched and has characters that feel real. They're lovely, flawed human beings who'd be invited to my house any day. The ending felt slightly rushed but the rest of story more than makes up for it.

Patrick MacNeill by Virginia Kantra

The Passion of Patrick MacNeill is the second of Ms Kantra's books I have read; the first one led me to add her to my list of favorite authors. Kate Sinclair is a senior fellow in the Jefferson Hospital burn unit.

The Passion of Patrick MacNeill book by Virginia Kantra

The Passion of PATRICK MACNEILL The MacNeills 1 Virginia Kantra . Chapter One. Some days Patrick MacNeill hated doctors. The whole know-it-all, knows-best profession. He hated his dependence on their schedules almost as much as he hated his need for their expertise. He'd measured away too much of the last four years on the smug, uninformative ...

"The Passion of Patrick MacNeill" Patrick Macneill is an ex marine, widower, and father to a young son. A son who was horrifically burned as a baby in a car accident that killed his wife. Enter Dr. Kate a burns victim physician. Little sparkles fly between them, both inexperienced with sexual partners, both almost disjointed from real life with their hectic dealings. I felt ...
