REVIEW: The Piper's Son by Melina Marchetta

Melina Marchetta's writing career took off in 1992 when she published her first novel:

Looking For Alibrandi. She later turned the story into a film script. The movie Looking for Alibrandi screened in theatres around Australia and the world from 2000. Melina has a Bachelor of Education degree from the Australian Catholic University.

Melina Marchetta is one of Australia's most popular YA writers. Her books have won the prestigious 'Book Council of Australia' award and her first novel was adapted into a movie in 2000.

'The Piper's Son' is very different from Marchetta's other YA books - mainly because it straddles the line between YA/Adult fiction.

ALPHA reader: 'The Piper's Son' by Melina Marchetta About The Piper's Son. The award-winning author of Finnikin of the Rock and Jellicoe Road pens a raw, compelling novel about a family's hard-won healing on the other side of trauma. Award-winning author Melina Marchetta reopens the story of the group of friends from her acclaimed novel Saving Francesca - but five years have passed, and now it's Thomas

Mackee who needs saving.

The Piper's Son by Melina Marchetta - Penguin Books

The Piper's Son is a little more grown-up, and in this book, Melina Marchetta moves more firmly into young adult territory. I was crying before I got to the end of chapter one, right through to the end, and I loved every minute of it.
