For most leaders of the Protestant Reformation... the priesthood of all believers was of central importance.
When we think of the Protestant Reformation's effects, some important gospel themes come to mind. The first, is a renewed and vigorous discussion of justification by faith alone, as well as the priesthood of all believers in scripture.

The priesthood of all believers is a chosen community, with a special place in God ' s heart, but it is also a community looking outward. It is a missional community, a community committed wholeheartedly to the messy world in which we live. It is an open community; entry into it is not earned, but offered freely. And it is a holy community.

Does the Bible teach the priesthood of all believers?

first, the priesthood of all believers (1 Peter 2:5 – 9) second, the ordained priesthood (Acts 14:23, Romans 15:16, 1 Timothy 5:17,

Originally the priesthood of all believers was an enlargement of the view that all Christians could intercede for one another through prayer. It came to refer, however, to the Protestant view of the equality of status between clergy and laity and to the calling of all Christians to be agents of God ' s Word and grace.

The Priesthood Of All Believers
The Priesthood of Believers. The New Testament also speaks of the priesthood of believers. Believer priests are part of the body of Christ. They form a community of believers. Although each believer priest is individually responsible to God, all believer priests are related to one another as brothers and sisters in Christ.

The doctrine of the priesthood of all believers meant that all who have faith in Christ and are baptised are designated priests and share in Christ ' s royal priesthood. This meant that every believer has equal access to the Father through Jesus.

Priesthood Of All Believers Theology Religion Essay

The doctrine of the priesthood of all believers is found throughout the Scriptures and was practiced in the early church. As Dr. R. Laird Harris writes, “ First century Christianity had no priests. The New Testament nowhere uses the word to describe a leader in Christian service. ”

The Priesthood Of All Believers
And The Protestant Reformation

Only some were called to be prophets, but apparently, according to several passages of Scripture, all true believers are called to be priests. Even in biblical times this was true. In Exodus 19:6 God speaks about the entire nation of Israel and says, “ ‘ And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. ’
