Smith accurately portrayed the Slavic mind of my last 70 years and before when grandparents came to America. I send copies to my 3 children so they would get the flavor of my life. A terrific read and great flowing writer. Captures the Slavic soul and struggles of life.

The Russians Analysis - eNotes.com

I read Smith's first book: The Russians back in the early 1980's. Back then I was struck with his description of the huge under ground black market economy that was pervasive in the Soviet Union.
