The Scatter Here is Too Great | TripFiction
The Scatter Here is Too Great is a most impressive debut from its Pakistani author, Bilal Tanweer. Innovative in form, and haunting in its theme, this novel held my attention from start to finish. As you can see from the cover, the central image of the book is a bullet-shattered windscreen: The hole at the centre throws a sharp clean web around itself and becomes crowded with tiny crystals.

Book Review: The Scatter Here is Too Great | Newsline
In Bilal Tanweer ' s debut novel, The Scatter Here is too Great, the city of Karachi is a full-fledged character, as vivid and alive as the motley crew of individuals that people it. Like the other complicated and nuanced characters, Tanweer lovingly portrays Karachi in all its beauty and brokenness.
