The Scavengers by Michael Perry | Drivel by Dave

The Scavengers were hugely influential in Auckland in the late 1970s, inspiring a whole generation of young bands. They reformed in 2004 for a one-off show in Auckland without Perry, and again at the AK79 reunion in 2008. The rockabilly/punk band Scavengers of Brighton, England, have no connection to the New Zealand band. Discography

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Scavengers

The Scavengers is set in the same latitude and longitude as Perry's non-fiction, and while climate change has introduced new plants and animals and set the weather out of whack, Perry's descriptive passages reveal the same love of nature. You can feel the night breeze, you can see and smell the green rolling hills, and you can understand and appreciate why the narrator, Maggie, a.k.a. "Ford Falcon," loves living out bubble so much.
