is a narrative non-fiction adventure of self-discovery, inter-personal struggle, and intrigue. The story opens with the author ' s discovery of a dead owl swinging upside down from a tree. Believing her discovery to be a message that shouldn ' t be ignored, she seeks insight from a clairvoyant metaphysical ' teacher ' with whom she, her husband Karl, and a small group of friends most unique have been studying. The teacher responds with surprisingly little insight and the author strikes out on her own to discover the message of the owl. Owl Medicine is unique because it introduces readers to valuable tools ( a "See, this-really-can-be-Runes/Medicine Cards/dream lived!" exploration) for affirmation. "Medicine Cards" is a trademark registered to David Carson and Jamie Sams.

Contemplation, and lives in Boulder, Colorado. Cards of Time GB Simon and Schuster This Spiritsong deck is a melding of two traditions of divination: one in which animals are seen as guides between our world and the spirit world, and one that uses 78 cards as a tool to connect with our highest self. Each animal was specifically selected based upon Shamanic	and Native American symbolism, merging each animal's unique power with classic tarot practices. For example, the Spiritsong animal, Raven, has attributes such as 'creation' that parallels some of the same symbolic tarot attributes of the traditional Magician card, which is why the Raven is the animal representing that card. The Spiritsong Tarot structure is based on the	traditional tarot, containing the 22 Majors, the 56 Minors, and four suits: Acorns for Wands/Fire; Feathers for Swords/Air; Shells for Cups/Water; and Crystals for Pentacles/Earth.
