The Slight Edge. Our

philosophies shape our attitudes, actions and results, which in turn shape our lives. The Slight Edge is a philosophy; it represents a way of thinking: what we know, how we hold that knowledge, and what we do.

The secret ingredient is straightforward: to do the small things over and over again until success kicks in.

Most of these small things are extremely easy to do – such as choosing between a salad or a packet of French fries, saving a penny or spending a penny.
