The Tehran Initiative is a continuation of the book The Twelfth Imam. While the first 10 or so pages of Tehran Initiative are spent recapping what was in the prior title, you really need to read both books in order. You might as well know now that Tehran Initiative is continued to the next book, Damascus Countdown.

The Tehran Initiative is an intense and chilling fictional narrative of what could happen if the Twelfth Imam, a Muslim messiah and prophet should transpire in the middle east. The Twelfth Imam is depicted in the Koran as returning to the middle east, as was dictated to Mohammad by the archangel Gabriel, and is accepted as the foundation of Islamic law.

The Tehran Initiative is the middle book of a trilogy. Each stands on it's own but I highly recommend reading all three books. The first book is The Twelfth Imam, the third book is The Damascus Countdown. All three books involve the fast paced adventures of a CIA agent in the Middle East and revolves around current news events.
