The Tulip Touch Anne Fine

In an interesting introduction to my edition, Anne Fine writes that

---

Tulip and Natalie seemed to "spring to life" almost as soon as she began to write the novel. She notes that they show the qualities of a good author. Tulip is a compulsive and brilliant liar (and, Fine says, "what is a novel but a tissue of lies telling the truth?"). The Tulip Touch Audiobook | Anne Fine | Audible.co.uk

Children's Book Review: The Tulip Touch by Anne Fine ... Tulip, the main character in the novel "The Tulip Touch", written by Anne Fine is described as having revolting and mean ways or deeply disturbed throughout the book. She came from an abusive home and a poor family. Tulip's dad would beat and shout at her.

"He'll thrash her like a red-headed stepchild!
