The biblical concept of world falls into five categories: the physical world, the human world, the moral world, the temporal world, and the coming world. The Physical World. The physical world at its largest extent includes the whole universe, the cosmos (John 1:9; Acts 17:24) or the creation (Rom 8:20). When biblical writers refer to the world, however, they usually mean the earth itself, not including sun, moon, and stars. World news – breaking news, videos and headlines - CNN In the Bible, the term world can refer to the earth and physical universe (Hebrews 1:2; John 13:1), but it most often refers to the humanistic system that is at odds with God (Matthew 18:7; John 15:19; 1 John 4:5). When the Bible says that God loves the world, it is referring to the human beings who live here (1 John 4:9). The universe is made up of fractals and Fibonacci numbers from the most minute particles up through the galaxy. Thus life is merely a series of events at the level we are attuned to perceive it. This world that we perceive is only that. Our perception of a world created in our minds.

What is the world really like? | Life and style | The Guardian

First, believers need to be "in the world." It could be taken for granted that believers are in the world; we reside on Earth, after all.

However, being in the world implies more than simply inhabiting it. We need to actually be involved in our societies. Jesus told His disciples to "go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew
