Third Daughter is a refreshing romance novel because the characters, all of them, are clearly defined, having strengths and weakness - yes, even a sin or two, or making human mistakes.

I loved them. They were well suited to the plot and setting.

Kaye Quinn | Rakuten Kobo

As the third daughter of the Queen of Dharia, 17-year-old Aniri has the opportunity to marry for love.

However, she agrees to an arranged marriage with Prince Malik of neighboring Jungali after he makes an impassioned plea for peace—and her mother presents a calculated need for a spy amongst the Jungali.
