It has never been more important to articulate the wonder and enchantment of the Christian message. Yet the traditional approaches of apologetics are often outmoded in an age of profound disenchantment and distraction, unable to meet this pressing need. This winsome apologetics book for a new generation makes the case that Christianity offers a compelling explanatory framework for making sense of our world. Pastor and writer Gavin Ortland believes it is essential to appeal not only to the mind but also to the heart and the imagination as we articulate the beauty of the gospel. Why God Makes Sense in a World That Doesn't reimagines four classical theistic arguments--cosmological, teleological, moral, and Christological--making a cumulative case for God as the best framework for understanding the storied nature of reality. The book suggests that Christian theism can explain such things as the elegance of math, the beauty of music, and the value of love. It is suitable for use in classes yet accessibly written, making it a perfect resource for churches and small groups.

Making the Case Against Belief in God Yale University Press
Friendship is a powerful force that can influence people to make positive and daring changes. Bonds from familiar relationships come from love and trust. The book of Ruth shows how these relationships are essential in everyday life and teaches us spiritual lessons. Ruth is one of only two women who has a Biblical book named after them. She is, however, the only non-Israelite whose name is one of the titles to a book in the Holy Bible. It's interesting because Ruth was a person from Moab, a country with a messy relationship with Israel.Nevertheless, from Ruth came royalty and the Messiah to all people. Ruth's character and strength are mentioned in the book as an inspiration in how we should frame our lives. Ruth's life was not soft and comfortable as she had to go through the pain of losing a loved one and making a profound change to her home and religious beliefs. Despite what Ruth endured, she went in faith to believe God and follow His plans for her life. "Your God Will Be My God" is a Biblical study on the book of Ruth exploring the various truths and lessons we can obtain from studying the title character. This book goes verse by verse into Ruth, comparing concepts and scriptures with many other Bible texts. There is plenty of space between the questions to write answers and ideas in the paperback version. If reading this through eBook, it might be a great idea to get pen and paper. Regardless of how you plan to study the book of Ruth, take your time and glean from the deep spiritual knowledge given. The book of Ruth is an excellent example of relationships, love, ministry, strength, faith, redeeming, and how to represent God to the community.

This book is about one man's spiritual journey - walking and breathing the living Bible - during his pilgrimage to the Holy Land (Israel). This amazing journey flushed out doctrinal confusion, man's secular spin on religion, while cleansing painful personal mistakes for a spiritual transformation. It started in September 2004 when God divinely healed his son, Luke. During this miracle, the author transformed through God's full interaction and with the power of constant prayer swirling around him, he committed to a covenant with the Lord. He decided to go to Israel in May 2006 for his fortieth birthday as a mid-life spiritual pilgrimage that forced him to go back to his earliest beginnings to fully understand his childhood, to stop blaming organized religion for his own mistakes, to see God as He really was, and to understand and commit to God's plan for his life. This new covenant was about personal forgiveness, a new kind of intimacy with the Lord, bringing God into the workplace and business decisions, and finally having the confidence to tell others all about Him.

The God Delusion caused a sensation when it was published in 2006. Within weeks it became the most hotly debated topic, with Dawkins himself branded as either saint or sinner for presenting his hard-hitting, impassioned rebuttal of religion of all types. His argument could hardly be more topical. While Europe is becoming increasingly secularized, the rise of religious fundamentalism, whether in the Middle East or Middle America, is dramatically and dangerously dividing opinion around the world. In America, and elsewhere, a vigorous dispute between 'intelligent design' and Darwinism is seriously undermining and restricting the teaching of science. In many countries religious dogma from medieval times still serves to abuse basic human rights such as women's and gay rights. And all from a belief in a God whose existence lacks evidence of any kind. Dawkins attacks God in all his forms. He eviscerates the major arguments for religion and demonstrates the supreme improbability of a supreme being. He shows how religion fuels war, foments bigotry and abuses children. The God Delusion is a brilliantly argued, fascinating polemic that will be required reading for anyone interested in this most emotional and important subject.

You are holding in your hands deadly dynamite. Yes.You have just purchased one of the most powerful life changing and enhancing Book. No other book will change your perception if you don't digest it by reading it. READ THIS Book.You will encounter ideas herein that are stimulating, thought-provoking, candid and spine -tingling. Yet they are true. You will be shown how to separate truth from religious and popular fiction. This book will take out the mystery of God. For God is not the Creator! Finally giving you unique satisfaction from facts you need to make important life decisions. You will be challenged and be excited after all.The problem of why the Creator created the universe still troubles thinking men and women; but if we cannot know why, we can at least know that He did not bring His worlds into being to meet some unfulfilled need in Himself, as a man might build a house to shelter against the winter cold or plant a field of rupoko to provide him with necessary food. The word necessary is wholly foreign to the Creator.Since He is the Power that is supreme over all, it follows that the Creator cannot be elevated. Nothing is above Him, nothing beyond or below Him. Any motion attributed to His direction or elevation is from us as creatures that are away from Him, in descent. He holds His position out of Himself and by leave of none. As no one can promote Him, so no one can degrade Him. It is clear that He upholds all things by the word of His power. Which is the Law. How can He be raised or supported by the things He upholds? Were all human beings suddenly to become blind, still the sun would shine by day and the stars by night, for the sun and stars owe nothing to the millions who benefit from their light. So, if every human on earth becomes an atheist, it could not affect the Creator in any way. He is what He is in Himself without regard to any other. To believe in Him adds nothing to His perfection; to doubt Him takes nothing away. It is the compound Soul that is on earth for experience Not the Creator! You are a Spirit Dwelling In matter briefly! It's Not the Creator in Actuality! the Creator is Longing for YOUR Worship is that so? Don't be too sure.That's not so. Thousands of years before colonizing and enslaving man-made religions were crafted The Creator now commonly known as God, Jesus, Allah or Jehovah was already worshipped by "Black People" in a way that is completely mocked and laughed at today. This Book sweeps away the religious rubble and will confirm for you the foundations that sustained Afrikan Civilizations for hundreds of thousands of years before any other, The claim largely by Christianity, Judaism and Islam, (Book based religions) to being true or revealed religions, spiritualities or ways of life pales into obliviousness once it is proved that Indigenous people on Earth already Knew the Creator before their advent. Ancient people worshipped and lived traditional lives based on applying the Laws they had received from their Ancestor who received them from the Creator!If You are of African lineage just remember the following observation; You cannot KNOW THIS One and ONLY Original Creator if you are convinced that, Islam is an African Religion, if you believe that Jesus died for your sins or that YHVH is "God's Name." How can this be, Because YOUR True Creator Is Directly Linked To your Ancestors? Your "God" Must Look Like Your Ancestor and eventually like you. This is common sense, Logical and True. Yet we have lost it. Today it will be restored.

In his first published book, "Oh My God, What's Next" he will share some of his life experiences with his readers and will inspire them to confront life's tragedies and disappointments with a positive and meaningful spiritual force. Edward "Eddie" Marella was born in Boston, Massachusetts on June 6, 1961. He was the son of an Italian-American family who resided in Quincy, Massachusetts. Early in Eddie's life he experienced several life changing events that forever impacted the way he viewed his future approach to life and religion. At the age of 12, while visiting his dying Grandmother, he witnessed his grandmother going through a near death experience. This was an overwhelming sight for him especially after upon awakening, she explained her experience to him. A few years later little did he know that he would directly experience what his grandmother did. At the age of 15 Eddie was in a severe motor scooter accident and was assumed dead by bystanders who saw the accident and were trying to help. This horrific accident and the near death experience that he went through would forever change his life and strengthen his religious beliefs. Later in life he again met with another serious and life threatening accident while swimming in Cape Cod. He was violently swept under an 18 ft. wave and somehow was miraculously saved and washed ashore unharmed. Eddie's lifelong experiences with near death and his battle against early stage cancer have been his inspiration to continually strengthen his belief in Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. He attends Mass daily and is always ready to help others and to tell his story about how to strive for a healthy and happy life regardless of what life sends.

"Some will assert that what we have in the Old Testament was what God 'was' whilst what we have in the New Testament is what he 'is' now. That leaves the very crucial question: 'Are we sure of what he will be tomorrow?' Where did this disconnect come from? How did Jesus explain Luke 24:25-27, 44-49 as one pointing to himself? If the message of the Scriptures was about himself and he (Jesus) is God as affirmed (not only by the eyewitnesses but from Scriptures prophesied and fulfilled), then is there a difference between Jesus in the Four Gospels and God as spoken of in the Old Testament writings? Could the New Testament writers have explained from the Old Testament writings and yet assert differently from what was written in certain portions of the same books? If it is true that all the Old Testament writings are inspired by God, then, there is the need to find out if there is a disconnect at all or why there should not be one at all. This is the basis of the 'THIS IS OUR GOD' series." This is our God - His wrath (2020)
