This book is about one man's spiritual journey - walking and breathing the living Bible - during his pilgrimage to the Holy Land (Israel). This amazing journey flushed out doctrinal confusion, man's secular spin on religion, while cleansing painful personal mistakes for a spiritual transformation. It started in September 2004 when God divinely healed his son, Luke. During this miracle, the author transformed through God's full interaction and with the power of constant prayer swirling around him, he committed to a covenant with the Lord. He decided to go to Israel in May 2006 for his fortieth birthday as a mid-life spiritual pilgrimage that forced him to go back to his earliest beginnings to fully understand his childhood, to stop blaming organized religion for his own mistakes, to see God as He really was, and to understand and commit to God's plan for his life. This new covenant was about personal forgiveness, a new kind of intimacy with the Lord, bringing God into the workplace and business decisions, and finally having the confidence to tell others all about Him.

"Magisterial. . . . A learned, brilliant and enjoyable study."—Géza Vermès, Times Literary Supplement In this exciting book, Paula Fredriksen explains the variety of New Testament images of Jesus by exploring the ways that the new Christian communities interpreted his mission and message in light of the delay of the Kingdom he had preached. This edition includes an introduction reviews the most recent scholarship on Jesus and its implications for both history and theology. "Brilliant and lucidly written, full of original and fascinating insights."—Reginald H. Fuller, Journal of the American Academy of Religion "This is a first-rate work of a first-rate historian."—James D. Tabor, Journal of Religion "Fredriksen confronts her documents—principally the writings of the New Testament—as an archaeologist would an especially rich complex site. With great care she distinguishes the literary images from historical fact. As she does so, she explains the images of Jesus in terms of the strategies and purposes of the writers Paul, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and

It has never been more important to articulate the wonder and enchantment of the Christian message. Yet the traditional approaches of apologetics are often outmoded in an age of profound disenchantment and distraction, unable to meet this pressing need. This winsome apologetics book for a new generation makes the case that Christianity offers a compelling explanatory framework for making sense of our world. Pastor and writer Gavin Ortlund believes it is essential to appeal not only to the mind but also to the heart and the imagination as we articulate the beauty of the gospel. Why God Makes Sense in a World That Doesn't reimagines four classical theistic arguments--cosmological, teleological, moral, and Christological--making a cumulative case for God as the best framework for understanding the storied nature of reality. The book suggests that Christian theism can explain such things as the elegance of math, the beauty of music, and the value of love. It is suitable for use in classes yet accessibly written, making it a perfect resource for churches and small groups.

fascinating guide to religion and its place in the world today. In God Is Not One, bestselling author Stephen Prothero makes a fresh and provocative argument that, contrary to popular understanding, all religions are not simply "different paths to the same God." Instead, he shows that the differences between the major religions are far greater than we think: they each ask different questions, tackle different problems, and aim at different goals. God Is Not One highlights the unique aspects of the world's major religions, with chapters on Islam, Christianity, Confucianism, Hinduism, Buddhism, Yoruba religion, Judaism, Daoism and atheism. Lucid and compelling, God Is Not One offers a new understanding of religion for the twenty-first century.

Islam is the only religion which teaches the existence of a PERFECT God. A perfect God means that there is no sharer in His Nature and His Attributes: "Say: He is God, the One and Only; God, the Eternal, Absolute; He begetteth not, nor is He begotten; and there is none like unto Him." (Holy Qur'an, 112:1-4) There has appeared a man in Benoni. He is not qualified in theology, but is fondly cherishing the self-delusion that he is an apostle of Christ, appointed by God to convert Muslims to Christianity. Because he is a lawyer by profession, he is adept at juggling with words and quoting the Holy Qur'an totally out of context without knowing a word of Arabic. He wants Muslims to believe that Jesus was also a God, a belief that is abhorrent to us, because it is an antithesis of the Absolute perfection of Allah (swt).

The True Story of a Very Special Friendship Simon and Schuster
The beloved debut novel about an affluent Indian family forever changed by one fateful day in 1969, from the author of The Ministry of Utmost Happiness NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • MAN BOOKER PRIZE WINNER Compared favorably to the works of Faulkner and Dickens, Arundhati Roy 's modern classic is equal parts powerful family saga, forbidden love story, and piercing political drama. The seven-year-old twins Estha and Rahel see their world shaken irrevocably by the arrival of their beautiful young cousin, Sophie. It is an event that will lead to an illicit liaison and tragedies accidental and intentional, exposing "big things [that] lurk unsaid" in a country drifting dangerously toward unrest. Lush, lyrical, and unnerving, The God of Small Things is an award-winning landmark that started for its author an esteemed career of fiction and political commentary that continues unabated.

My God! Our God? Skylight Paths Publishing

"Some will assert that what we have in the Old Testament was what God 'was' whilst what we have in the New Testament is what he 'is' now. That leaves the very crucial question: 'Are we sure of what he will be tomorrow?' Where did this disconnect come from? How did Jesus explain Luke 24:25-27, 44-49 as one pointing to himself? If the message of the Scriptures was about himself and he (Jesus) is God as affirmed (not only by the eyewitnesses but from Scriptures prophesied and fulfilled), then is there a difference between Jesus in the Four Gospels and God as spoken of in the Old Testament writings? Could the New Testament writers have explained from the Old Testament writings and yet assert differently from what was written in certain portions of the same books? If it is true that all the Old Testament writings are inspired by God, then, there is the need to find out if there is a disconnect at all or why there should not be one at all. This is the basis of the 'THIS IS OUR GOD' series." This is our God - His wrath

The primary basis of all judgement concerning the deeds done in our bodies is our motives. Our values determine our motives, and our motives are the real reason behind our thoughts, words, and deeds. Only God can see the true motives of every man's heart. Almost all human beings have something to hide. Nearly everyone twists words, events, and situations to their own advantage, to place themselves in the best possible light. Men often have ulterior motives and hidden agendas. This is sin and a form of hiding. Adam and Eve first hid from the presence of the Lord in the garden after they had fallen. But there will be no hiding from the presence of the Lord on that solemn Day of Judgement. Purity of Heart will prepare you for that day and spare you loss at the judgement seat of Christ, so that you may receive your full reward. What is done in pure love, by the leading of the Spirit, and for the glory and honor of God shall reap the fullest rewards.

Making the Case Against Belief in God Baker Academic

You are holding in your hands deadly dynamite. Yes. You have just purchased one of the most powerful life changing and enhancing Book. No other book will change your perception if you don't digest it by reading it. READ THIS Book. You will encounter ideas herein that are stimulating, thought-provoking, candid and spine-tingling. Yet they are true. You will be shown how to separate truth from religious and popular fiction. This book will take out the mystery of God. For God is not the Creator! Finally giving you unique satisfaction from facts you need to make important life decisions. You will be challenged and be excited after all. The problem of why the Creator created the universe still troubles thinking men and women; but if we cannot know why, we can at least know that He did not bring His worlds into being to meet some unfulfilled need in Himself, as a man might build a house to shelter against the winter cold or plant a field of rupo to provide him with necessary food. The word necessary is wholly foreign to the Creator. Since He is the Power that is supreme over all, it follows that the Creator cannot be elevated. Nothing is above Him, nothing beyond or below Him. Any motion attributed to His direction or elevation is from us as creatures that are away from Him, in descent. He holds His position out of Himself and by leave of none. As no one can promote Him, so no one can degrade Him. It is clear that He upholds all things by the word of His power. Which is the Law. How can He be raised or supported by the things He upholds? Were all human beings suddenly to become blind, still the sun would shine by day and the stars by night, for the sun and stars owe nothing to the millions who benefit from their light. So, if every human on earth becomes an atheist, it could not affect the Creator in any way. He is what He is in Himself without regard to any other. To believe in Him adds nothing to His perfection; to doubt Him takes nothing away. It is the compound Soul that is on earth for experience Not the Creator! You are a Spirit Dwelling In matter briefly! It's Not the Creator in Actuality! the Creator is Longing for YOUR Worship is that so? Don't be too sure. That's not so. Thousands of years before colonizing and enslaving man-made religions were crafted The Creator now commonly known as God, Jesus, Allah or Jehovah was already worshipped by "Black People" in a way that is completely mocked and laughed at today. This Book sweeps away the religious rubble and will confirm for you the foundations that sustained Afrikan Civilizations for hundreds of thousands of years before any other, The claim largely by Christianity, Judaism and Islam, (Book based religions) to being true or revealed religions, spiritualities or ways of life pales into oblivion once it is proved that Indigenous people on Earth already Knew the Creator before their advent. Ancient people worshipped and lived traditional lives based on applying the Laws they had received from their Ancestor who received them from the Creator! If You are of African lineage just remember the following observation; You cannot KNOW THIS One and ONLY Original Creator if you are convinced that, Islam is an African Religion, if you believe that Jesus died for your sins or that YHVH is "God's Name." How can this be, Because YOUR True Creator Is Directly Linked To your Ancestors? Your "God" Must Look Like Your Ancestor and eventually like you. This is common sense, Logical and True. Yet we have lost it. Today it will be restored.

Friendship is a powerful force that can influence people to make positive and daring changes. Bonds from familiar relationships come from love and trust. The book of Ruth shows how these relationships are essential in everyday life and teaches us spiritual lessons. Ruth is one of only two women who has a Biblical book named after them. She is, however, the only non-Israelite whose name is one of the titles to a book in the Holy Bible. It's interesting because Ruth was a person from Moab, a country with a messy relationship with Israel. Nevertheless, from Ruth came royalty and the Messiah to all people. Ruth's character and strength are mentioned in the book as an inspiration in how we should frame our lives. Ruth's life was not soft and comfortable as she had to go through the pain of losing a loved one and making a profound change to her home and religious beliefs. Despite what Ruth endured, she went in faith to believe God and follow His plans for her life. "Your God Will Be My God" is a Biblical study on the book of Ruth exploring the various truths and lessons we can obtain from studying the title character. This book goes verse by verse into Ruth, comparing concepts and scriptures with many other Bible texts. There is plenty of space between the questions to write answers and ideas in the paperback version. If reading this through eBook, it might be a great idea to get pen and paper. Regardless of how you plan to study the book of Ruth, take your time and glean from the deep spiritual knowledge given. The book of Ruth is an excellent example of relationships, love, ministry, strength, faith, redeeming, and how to represent God to the community.

My God, in Whom I Trust Canongate Books

"God is love is the radical claim of Christianity," writes Frederick Bauerschmidt at the beginning of this little meditation on the essentials of Christian faith. In a rich yet accessible style reminiscent of C. S. Lewis and G. K. Chesterton, Bauerschmidt breathes life back into that claim, drawing from Scripture, great Christian and non-Christian writers of the past, and his own lived experience to show just how countercultural and subversive Christianity is actually meant to be. Eschewing the abstract and dogmatic in favor of the relational and inviting, he offers something for everyone, from lifelong churchgoers and students of religion to the growing population of "nones" among younger generations who are increasingly seeking spiritual fulfillment outside of institutional Christianity. With further reading suggestions (both scriptural and nonscriptural) at the end of each chapter, The Love That Is God is the perfect starting point of a spiritual journey into deeper relationship with God.

What if you told God you would do anything . . . and he took you up on it?

In the years since the initial release of Anything, God continued to stretch Jennie Allen and her faith because of the courageous prayer of surrender that she and her husband, Zac, prayed, "God, we will do anything.

Anything." Previously caught in the dizzying haze of worldly happiness and empty pursuits, Jennie went on to begin living out the adventure God had written for them—to include becoming the founder of IF: Gathering, an organization to gather, equip, and unleash the next generation to live out their purpose. Anything is a prayer of surrender that will spark something.

A prayer that will move you to stop chasing things that just make you feel happy and start living a surrendered life that matters. This newly revised edition is updated throughout to include a new introduction and an in-depth Bible study component for those who have been wanting to lead a study on this topic. Join Jennie on an adventure to discover your anything, those things that actually mean nothing until you know the God truly worth giving it all up for. And when you do, that will change everything.
